

Biographical Information for Peter H. Dyck

Born: June 4, 1940, Berlin, Germany

Diploma in Physics, University of Karlsruhe, Germany

1970-1976 Reload Physics, Kwu, Germany

1976 - 1978 Project Manager for the wet spent fuel storage facility as part of the German reprocessing plant, Kwu, Germany

1978 - 1986 Project Manager for the Gorleben and Ahaus dry spent fuel storage facilities at DWK, Germany

1986 - 1996 Project Manager and Section Head, fresh fuel projects at Siemens, Germany responsible for marketing and fuel supply for all Nuclear Power Plants in the Northern half of Germany

Since 1997 Unit head at IAEA in the Nuclear Fuel Cycle and Materials Section, responsible for Spent Fuel Storage, Spent Fuel Management